2019 | BELIEVE IN ILLUSION

In collaboration with We Make Them production, this thought-provoking short film employs movement as a tool of expression to investigate how we perceive ourselves in the mirror versus how others perceive us.

ABOUT US

Niki&Martin Duo is a dynamic dance duo specializing in contemporary dance, currently based in Vienna. The duo was established in 2019 by Nikola Majtanova from Slovakia and Marcin Denkiewicz from Poland, who met while studying contemporary dance, performance, and pedagogy at ABU in Linz, Austria.

Since then, they have embarked on an exciting journey, working on various creative projects spanning dance, photography, film, and theater across several countries such as Poland, Austria, South Korea, Spain, Greece, Croatia, Germany, and the United States. With their unique, physical and innovative approach to contemporary dance, the duo has successfully captured the attention of audiences and continues to inspire and awe with their performance.

Their artistic focus centers on highly physical dance performances and the intersection of dance and cinema by creating independent film choreographies through an intense interplay between the two mediums. Additionally, they push the boundaries of traditional performance spaces by bringing their art form to outdoor public spaces and site-specific areas.

Their objective is to expand the reach of contemporary dance by showcasing their work to a wider audience. By doing so, they strive to enrich the contemporary dance scene with their unique blend of physicality and cinematic artistry.
