

Call for artists: Residency in Aarhus
January 21st - February 4th, 2013
Application deadline: October 26th 2012.

Bora Bora - dance and visual theatre, Denmark, invites a group of performers/dancers and other professional artists to have an "artist-in-residence" stay at our dance venue in Aarhus, January 21st-February 4th 2013.

A group of professional performance, dance or theatre artists will be given the chance to use one of our stages at Bora Bora - dance and visual theatre to do any project or investigation of their own choice. Preferably the residency will be used as a part of a rehearsal period for a production.

The group must exist of up to 5 professional dancers /performers / other artists, and the project must be specifically described and planned.

We offer

- Rehearsal space for fourteen days (a stage of 14x10 meters not incl. audience space).
- Travel expenses and accommodation paid.
- Catering or small per diems.
- Technical support and dramaturgical assistance.
- Possibility to cooperate with our research lab. (www.laboratoriet.org)
- Help with coordination to work with partners from Aarhus and the region for cooperation and inspirational meetings.

Specific requirements

- Artists from all DNA-partner countries are welcome to apply (Slovakia, Poland, Germany, Lithuania, Czech Republic and Hungary).
- All artists must be professionals.
- Once chosen the group must make a thorough description of the project's intention/criteria for success and make a report after ended residency.
- The group must be willing to interact with artists, cultural institutions and the local community as part of the residency.
- The residency must be open to giving a workshop and to have a public presentation/work-in-progress at the end of the residency.
- Applicants must have a specific artistic purpose with the residency, and this must be formulated to Bora Bora in the application.
- Additional funding must be considered, since the residency only covers a part of production/rehearsal.

Application deadline: October 26th 2011.
